

JAMES LEE GLOVER : CIVIL ACTION
v. :
DETECTIVE GOOB, ET AL. : NO. 11-1953

MEMORANDUM

STENGEL, J.

MARCH 30, 2011

Plaintiff, an inmate at SCI-Houtzdale, has filed a pro se motion to proceed in forma pauperis, and a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 civil rights action in which he alleges that the defendants assaulted and injured him during an arrest, and denied him medical attention.

For the reasons outlined below, this Court will grant plaintiff temporary in forma pauperis status for the sole purpose of filing this action in this Court. The action will then be transferred to the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania for consideration of plaintiff's complaint and his motion to proceed in forma pauperis.

Venue for actions under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 is governed by 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), which provides that this action may be brought in "(1) a judicial district where any defendant resides, if all defendants reside in the same state, (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of the property that is the subject of the action is situated, or (3) a judicial district in which any defendant may be found, if there is no district in which the action may otherwise be brought."

Plaintiff alleges that his constitutional rights were violated by officers of the Pittsburgh Police Department during an arrest. Pittsburgh, Pa., is located in the Western District of Pennsylvania. Because plaintiff does not allege that his claims arose in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, or that any defendant in this action resides in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, venue is improper in this judicial district. When venue is improper, as in this case, the Court may, in the interest of justice, transfer the case to a district court in which it could have been brought. 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a). Under the facts set forth in the complaint, this case could have been brought in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a), the Court will transfer this case to the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

An appropriate order follows.
